AFFAIRS IN THE REALM OF SOCIETY.

Mrs. Roosevelt Expected to Arrive at the in college he was a famous oarsman and all-round athlete. White House This Afternoon From Philadelphia.

The White House.

Mrs. Roosevelt, who went to Philadelphia yesterday to attend the grand opera as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John William Brock, is expected at the White House this afternoon.

Miss Roosevelt and Miss Root reached New Orleans yesterday at 1 o'clock. They were met at the station by Mr. McChenny and were driven at once to the house which Mr. and Mrs. McIlhenny have taken for the carnival. Last evening Miss Roosevelt and Miss Root attended the carnival ball of the Atlanteans, where they received much at-

The Cabinet Circle.

Mrs. Hay will not receive today.

Mrs. Shaw, wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, will receive this afternoon for the last time this season.

Mrs. Knox, who has been indisposed for the past few days, will not receive this afternoon nor again this season rington, of Waverley, near Warrenton, erts, of Utica, N. Y., will be at home on the occasion of each dance. The coand has been compelled to cancel all of Va., to Ernest Astley-Cooper, of Eng-Palm Beach the latter part of this week. testant Episcopal Church, Warrenton,

The Foreign Colony.

from a severe attack of grip, and is confined to the embassy.

ame Hengelmuller.

pointed minister from Switzerland to beth Mathews, daughter of the late Edsucceed Mr. Ploda, is expected in New Ward T. Mathews, to Charles Lewis Street, Washington Heights, will not be and was for the benefit of the enlisted flags, and the signal and battallon flags evening she will attend the French York today.

The announcement is made of the apbrun as attache of the French embassy Count de Chambrun is a great-grandson of Lafayette, and represented the Lafayette family at the Rochambeau ceremonies. His father, the late Marquis de Chambrun, lived for thirty years in Washington, and was the attorney for the French government before the French and American claims commisgrande dame of the old school and took Marquis de Chambrun, who is now the riage. head of his family, married Miss Minnie Nicholas, the daughter of Mrs. Bellamy Storer. He lived at the Capital for many years, and is pleasantly remembered here. Marquis de Chambrun holds a seat in the chamber of deputies and makes his home in Paris, Count de Chambrun's second brother is captain of colonial artillery and chevalier of the Legion of Honor. He married Miss Longworth, of Cincinnati, a sister of Nicholas Longworth, who has recently been elected to Congress.

The Marquise de Chambrun had only one daughter. Therese, who is married to Count de Brazza Sazorgnan, former she followed the hounds at the Radnor governor of the French Congo. Count Hunt, but has not done so for the last countess, is at present living in France

Count Charles de Chambrun, who has been detailed to the embassy here, is a young man on the sunny side of thirty, unmarried, possessed of a pleasant personalby and social talents, and will be an agreeable addition to the diplomatic the Amstrian embassy, has gone to New S. A., is now an attache at the Ameri-York to await the arrival of Madame can embassy in London. Her other Mrs. Rohlfs, who was Miss Anna Kathvon Callenberg, who was expected yes-

Dinners.

Senator and Mrs. Alger gave a dinner last night in honor of the British am-Holmes, Senator and Mrs. Wetmore, General and Mrs. Draper, Mr. and Mrs. Henley Smith, Mrs. Nicholas Anderson, Mr. Boardman, Mrs. Slater, Hon. Edward Morrell, Mrs. William E. Bailey of Harrhsburg, and A. M. Henry of De-

Serator and Mrs. Hanna entertained at dinner last night in honor of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and Mrs. Hendt rson. Their guests were the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Shaw Senator and Mrs. Dryden, Senator and men of England. Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Garffeld, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Merriam, Dr. and Mrs. Rixey, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Bennett, and Miss Phelps.

The Paymaster General of the Army and Mrs. Bates gave a dinner last night in honor of the Postmaster General and for the imperial temples of China and The fair sweet flowers are dead today Mrs. Payne. Their guests were the Secretary of the Navy, the Admiral of the place orders in that city for the manu- But here and there upon the scene Navy and Mrs. Dewey, Senator Hale, Senas or Kean, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. George Lathrop Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Spalding, Mr. and Mrs. Dalzell, Mrs. Audenried. Mrs. Wallach, Mr. and Mrs. John Dalzell, Mr. and Mrs. William Ellroy Curtis, Mrs. Hobart, and Rear Admiral Kenny.

Gen. and Mrs. John Watts Kearney, who purpose making Washington their future home, and have taken the Tiffany stone? Confronted by an idol "made in When others favored now-alas! house on a long sease, entertained at dinner last night Their guests were the Pesavian minister and Mme. Calderon, Justice and Mrs. Harlan, General and Mrs. Corbin, the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Randolph McKim, Mr. and Mrs. John Croppen, the Countess Esterhary, Miss Hitch. The Kind You Have Always Bought cock, Miss Kearney, the Persian minister, Justice Brown, and Gen. S. B. M

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Legare gave a dinner in honor of the Austrian ambassador and Madame Hengelmulier last evening. Their guests were Mrs. Patterson, Mr and Mrs. de Koven, Mrs. Henry May, Mr. and Mrs. Larz Anderson, Miss Paten, Miss Boardman, Miss Ward, Mr. Brun, Baron Gevers, Gist Blair, Dering, Mr. Riamo, and Cleland Davis.

Representative Mann of Illinois gave small dinner last night. His guests afternoon for the last time this season. were Representative Cannon, Represen tative Hopkins, Representative Smith. Representative Warner, Representative Foss, Representative Craff, Representa tive Reeves, Representative Boutell, Representative Prince, Congressmanelect Wilson; and Herman A. Phillips, all of Illinois

The marriage of Mrs. Percy W. Charher engagements. She will leave town for land, will take place at St. James Pronorrow afternoon. Mrs. Charrington Miss Wilson will not receive this af- was a Miss Randolph, daughter of Major Graham will be at home Friday, Febru-Beverley Randolph, of the Moorings, ary 20, for the last time this season. near Millwood, Clarke county, and in her girlhood was the belle of the vicinity in The Russian ambassador is suffering which she lived. She married while still Street, will be at home tomorrow after- Mrs. Robert Henderson, of Cumberland, noon. Miss Gault, of Baltimore, is their Md., was given yesterday by Mrs. S. Bury's Court, Surrey, England, and went | guest. abroad to live. Mr. Charrington died at Misa Snyder, of Philadelphia, is visit- Waverley several years ago. Mr. Astley, ing the Austrian ambassador and Mad- Cooper is a son of the English family by

Mr. Du Martheray, who has been ap- | The marriage of Miss Harriet Eliza-Latham, of Greenville, N. C., took place at home the 19th, but will be at home this morning at St. Matthew's Church.

Engagements.

Mrs. William Thaw announces the enagement of her daughter, Alice, to the Earl of Yarmouth. Miss Thaw and her fiance are at present visiting Mrs. George Carnegie at Cumberland Island, sion. He was also attached to the in Lafayette Square. The Earl of Yar-velt's portrait is also on exhibition, and mouth is the eldest son of the Marquis attracts much attention. to 1884. Marquise de Chambrun, who was of Hertford and is well known both in of Mrs. Roosevelt, which Chartran paint- first Street, last evening. a granddaughter of Lafayette, was a New York and Washington, where he ed last winter, cannot be exhibited, since a leading part in society while she has been set for the wedding, which ment, and courtesy forbids its being rewill not take place for some time, as moved from the White House. Count de Chambrun's eldest brother, Mrs. Thaw is opposed to an early mar-

> Kelso Cassatt and Dr. James P. Hutch- Jamaica. ison has just been announced. Miss Cassatt is the elder daughter of A. J. Cassatt has been one of the most prominent members of the fashionable set in in the country this season. Philadelphia for a number of years. She is an expert horsewoman, frequently appearing in the ring showing her father's at the various horse shows. Formerly few sea

Stewart, of Baltimore, she is an expert national tournaments. Miss Cassatt is one of the leading spirits in the Acting Miss Bently, and Miss Reed. Club of Philadelphia, and is considered Mr. von Callenberg, the secretary of her brothers, Major E. B. Cassatt, U. accompanied them. Philadelphia.

Dr. Hutchison lives at 133 South Willard. Twenty-second Street, Philadelphia, and Miss Dearing, Miss Bangs, and Miss Fannie May Bangs, of 1008 Massachusetts Avenue, will be at home Monday, go to Philadelphia on the 23d for a visit

Mrs. L. Q. C. Lamar will be at home oday from 4 to 7 at 1733 Seventeenth Street northwest.

Mrs. William Lewis Carpenter will be at home today at the Farragut from 4 to 6; also from 8 to 10.

Mrs. John Hyde, 1840 Summit Avenue, Lanier Heights, will be at home this

Miss J. Riffard Mickle and Miss Addie Ruth Mickle will be at home today for

Mrs. Hogg, wife of Lieutenant Comnander W. S. Hogg, U. S. N., will be at home on the last two Thursdays in February, for the last time this season. Mrs. George E. Roberts, 1806 New informally Friday, February 20, from 3 Mrs. George Marsh and the Misses

Mrs. Duvall and Miss Duvall, 1831 M noon. Miss Gault, of Baltimore, is their Md., was given yesterday by Mrs. S.

Will Not Receive.

Mrs. Sam Bieber and Miss Bieber have discontinued their Thursdays at home for the season.

Thursday, the 26th of this month.

nome Thursday, February 26, but not tomorrow.

Notes.

One of the most interesting portraits at the Chartran exhibition in New York the Ponce de Leon, St. Augustine, Fla., off the coast of Florida. Miss Thaw will is that of Secretary Root. The figure leave the island tomorrow and will join is three quarters length, standing, and her mother and brother at their home the likeness is admirable. Miss Roosevisited earlier in the season. No date it was a gift of France to this Govern-

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lambie sailed yes- at 1424 Spruce Street. terday from Baltimore on the United The engagement of Miss Katherine Fiuit Company steamer Brookline for

This remarkable showing of work by Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Mr. Sargent is unusual in its quality and Railroad Company, who lives at 202 West abundance for an American exhibition, Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia. Miss and it makes the current show of the Academy distinguished beyond any held

Miss Ethel M. Smythe, the composer, who has been in Washington for the horses, both driving and in the saddle, past week and was the recipient of much social attention, returned to New York this afternoon.

Company H, of the Western High Like her sister, Mrs. W. Plunkett Hotel Gordon on next Friday night. The golfer, although for several years she has not taken an active part in the Miss Cassatt is O. Howard Clark, Mrs. Irene O. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. Gillett have to be one of the most talented amateur gone to New Orleans for the Mardi Gras. actresses in that organization. One of Miss Terry, daughter of Admiral Terry, brother, Robert K. Cassatt, lives in erine Green, the author of the celebrated "Leavenworth Case," is at the New is the son of the late James Hutchison. His mother was a Miss Ingersoll, and he is related to most terday awarded the Academy Gold Medal bassador and Lady Herbert, invited to of the old and important families of Honor by the board of directors of in that city. He is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Harvard and of the University of Penn- Arts. In the current exhibition, which sylvania Medical School, and is attach- closes February 28, Mr. Sargent has ed to the Children's Hospital. While four distinguished pictures-the por-

AMERICAN-MADE IDOLS.

Another British industry has been a good argument against idol worship, and again our citizen artisans have grace would be to claim for his own enscored a victory over the pauper work-men of England

The manufacture of idols for countries

The idol industry and the missionary industry do not seem to go well toindustry peculiar to Birmingham. We gether. learn, however, that a commissioner from Korea is on his way to Philadelphia with models from which he will have The field that was so green in May made a large number of assorted idols Korea. He has already arranged to facture of the goods he wants.

and sell them for use in heathen temples, how can we with good grace maintain the missionary effort which seeks The world's a wind-swept field where we, their overthrow and which proclaims them for what they are-constructions The ones today decked brilliantly of papier-mache and plaster of paris and Tomorrow may lie 'neath the snow! paint, before which "the heathen in his There's many a weedy boy we pass blindness bows down" as to wood and the United States," the American missionary might find himself at a loss for

CASTORIA For Infants and Children.

invaded" by the omnipotent American, and the last thing he could do with good

THE WIND-SWEPT FIELD.

Is gleaming white with wind-swept

That decked the plain a while ago; A stalk is standing proud and high; But if we are to manufacture idols We called them weeds when all was green, And, seeking flowers, passed them by.

As weeds and flowers, come and go: Who yet may loom up tall and proud

Are down, unnoticed, with the crowd. -S. E. Kiser.

Chat H. Fletcher.

Dinners and Receptions Occupy Time of Vanity Fair-Notes from Baltimore and Signal Honor Paid Daughter New York.

lay and Mrs. William S. Kimball.

Society in New York.

Mrs. William A. Duer is very ill. Shand Mr. Duer have been at the Waldorf-

She is the daughter of the late William

The old United States ship New Hamp shire, which is moored at the foot of vas in festive attire last night, when the Second Division, First Battalion, Naval Militia, of New York, gave a recep-

Flags and bunting, flowers and plants

n great profusion were used to decor-on and dance on board of it, married to Clarence Mackay.

The Misses Calhoun will receive at the Mendota on tomorrow for the last time of P. A. R. Widener, the portrait of 23 to February 28, are Mrs. Edward H. Ogden, regent; regent's alternate, Mrs. Miss Alice Roosevelt's debut into New bassy, London, and the small composi- Frank H. Getchell, vice regent; regent's tion entitled "The Oyster Gatherers," delegate, Ashbel Welch; delegates from belonging to Miss Susan Travers, of New the chapter, Miss Anne Hampton Barnes, Baltimore Notes.

A luncheon to several debutantes of the season was given yesterday by Miss Gladys Hermione Gittings at her resience, Ashburton, in the Green Spring Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gittings and was Mme. Roger-Miclos, the pianiste. About stage was reserved for them. formally introduced this season at the 150 guests were expected. New Year german of the Bachelors' Co-

The Junior Cotillon Club concluded ast night at Lehmann's Hall the series of pleasant dances given this season by members of the organization. The coillons have proved among the most en-R. Travers, a sister of Mrs. James Wadsjoyable events of the gay season and an unusual number of out-of-town society Hampshire Avenue, and Mrs. Henry Rob. folk have been the guests of the club tillon was led last evening by Lawraon Riggs

> Miss Mary Wylie, who has been visit ing Miss Bessie Trescot, of Washington, for two weeks, has returned home.

> A card party in honor of her gues Johnson Poe at her residence, 1021 St. Paul Street.

In the picturesque setting of a snow bound army post the Fort McHenry Social Club gave a ball in the post hall were suspended rows of Japanese lan- every dance. last evening. It was the first which has terns illuminated by electricity. The served after the dancing. The rules re-Mrs. Charles Fishbaugh will be at garding the time for turning in were suspended, and until after midnight the soldiers and their friends from the city

> Among prominent Marylanders now at are Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Lord.

Happenings in Philadelphia. William Drayton, jr., gave a stag din-

A reception will be given in honor of Mrs. Adna R. Chaffee, wife of Major General Chaffee, U. S. A., on Saturday, February 28, by Mrs. Oliver Hopkinson

Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, D. D. Bishop Coadjutor of Pennsylvania, spoke on "What Woman Can Do." before the local assembly of the Daughters of the King at St. Andrew's Protestant Episco-pal Church, Eighth Street, above Spruce last evening.

All arrangements have been completed for the reception in honor of his eminence, James Cardinal Gibbons, to be given this evening by the Newman Club of the University of Pennsylvania in the rotunda of the Free Museum of Science and Art of the university

The delegates and alternates of the Philadelphia Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, who are going t

Mother Goose Sugar Loaf Rhymes.

The King is in the counting-room; But isn't counting money. He's just about to dine, you see, On SUGAR LOAF and honey.

te to eat it heartily. Your grocer sells it. Made ONLY by BOSTON BAKING CO., Phone, Main 176. Washington. ********

Dermatology. Manicuring. Chiropody. A Scalp Treatment

That Saves the Hair.

J. S. LITTLE,

THE NEW DERMATOLOGICAL PARLORS S. E. Corner F and 11th Sts.

MISS ALICE ROOSEVELT AT COURT OF MOMUS

of the President.

Miss Alice Roosevelt's debut into New Orleans society was a brilliant affair. Special honors were shown the daughter of the President, and also Miss Root Mrs. William Gray Knowles; alternates, Mrs. Frank H. Whiting, Mrs. John Scoldaughter of the Secretary of War, who accompanied her. Miss Roosevelt and Miss Root reached New Orleans in the afternoon, their train being several Mrs. N. E. Baylies had as the artists t her musicale last evening, Mme. Fritzi hours late, owing to the floods and bliz-Miss Gittings is a daughter of Scheff and M. Oumiroff, the singers, and zard. One of the boxes to the left of the

The ball was one of the most lavish New Orleans has ever seen. When the queen's maids for the court of 1903 had been chosen, a signal honor, unequaled Astoria all winter. Although she has been an invalid, only recently has her in carnival history, was shown Miss condition been thought to be critical. Roosevelt. The maskers, who were beautifully costumed, lined themselves up or either side of the platform, and the capworth, and her daughter, Katharine, is tain of the organization, escorting Miss Roosevelt from her box, led her through the avenue thus formed to the throne The king presented her with a royal decree, emblazoned in gold, expressive of East Twenty-fourth Street, East River, the delight of the organization at her presence. Accompanying the decree was bouquet of violets and roses

Cheered While Band Played "Dixie." Miss Roosevelt was led upon the stage and through the line of maskers, the ate the ship, especially the spar deck, band played "Way Down South in Dixie," where the reception and dancing took and the brilliant assemblage, which place. The sides of the inclosed deck filled the French Opera House, cheered. Miss Roosevelt remained with the roywere covered with blue and white bunt-

Miss Roosevelt will be the guest of men exclusively. There was an orches- were conspicuous in the embellishment opera. On Thursday evening another tra to play dance music and supper was of the deck, which supplied an excellent luncheon and the Momus ball are sched-

LANSBURGH & BRO.

LANSBURGH & BRO.

Store opens 8:30 a. m. Closes 5:30 p. m. Saturdays 9 p. m.

ing, streamers of which also decorated al party while the first maskers' dance the ceiling, while from the cross beams was forming, and was called out for two of a kind, and will create this special sale. In order to make a speedy clearance we have marked them at these ridiculous prices. Of course, there is a pick, so come early to get the choice. Center Table, main aisle:

After=Stock=Taking Sale of Jewelry.

At 2c Each Worth from 10c to 15c.

At 4c Each
Worth from 15c to 25c.

At 6c Each Worth from 25c to 35c.

At 11c Each

Worth from 35c to 50c.

Comprises a varied assortment of Brooch Pins, Cuff Links, Waist Sets, Sleeve Buttons, Barrettes, in an endless variety of designs. You will find Hat Pins, with rhine-Comprises a variety of Waist Sets.

some set with various stones; Bar-rettes with turquoise sets, Roman gold finish; Cuff Links, Brooches,

Hat Pins, Belt Pins. All this sea-

stone settings; Brooches, Belt Pins, Cuff Buttons, Link Sets, Waist Sets, Consists of Gold-plated Cuff Pins with different settings. Waist Sets, Barrettes, Hat Pins with spiral ends, rhinestone settings, Brooches with dainty settings, warranted best

LANSBURGH & BRO.,

420 to 426 Seventh St.

417 to 425 Eighth St.

The New "Wear-Well" $3 Shoes For Women.....

More attractive, more desirable than ever before can be truthfully said of the new Spring styles in "Wear Well" Shoes for Women. Every taste is catered to in the variety of 15 different styles, in all leathers. It is easy to detect the quality of material and superior work-manship in "Wear Wells." They chal-lenge careful scrutiny. The price,

$3.00

EDMONSTON'S, 1334 F St.

PETER GROGAN, Credit for All Washington.

WE ARE IN THE MIDST OF OUR ANNUAL CLEARANCE OF WINTER

STOCK, AND

ON THE EASIEST

TERMS OF

PARLOR, BEDROOM, AND DINING ROOM FURNITURE AT A GREAT DISCOUNT.

No economical housekeeper can afford to overlook such bargains as we are offering. If you have been Suite, Sideboard, China Closet, Bedroom Suite, or Dinner Set at a saving, now is the best time of the whole year. Big discounts-easy payments. Carpets made, laid, and lined free.

817-819-821-823 SEVENTH ST. N. W. Between H and I Sts.

Aeolian and Pianola.

Pianos Rented.

Wm. Knabe & Co. 1209 Pa. Ave.

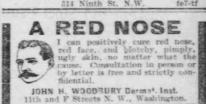

Let Your Eves Rest.

Next to Palais Royal. SEWING MACHINES RENTED FOR 500 PER WEEK. Machines Repaired, 50c.

Edwin H. Etz, Optician, 1005 G Street,

S. OPPENHEIMER & BRO.,

Droop's Music Special.

"TOO LATE"
"MAIDEN WITH THE DREAMY EYES"
-AND MANY OTHERS-OUR PRICE, 17 CENTS EACH.

E.F. Droop & Sons, 925 Pa. Ave.

"MOROIL"

Tasteless Wine of Cod Liver Oil and ritive. Cures colds and coughs and pre ents consumption. $1 a bottle. WILLIAMS DRUG STORE COR. NINTH AND F.

$5 Teeth That Fit.

LOWEST prices on Crowns, pridgework, and Fillings.
PAINLESS EXTRACTION.

DR. PATTON'S Union Dental Parlors, Second Floor,